

Anti-racism and Feminism as Activism in EU and Comparative Law

Organized by L.Clément-Wilz and F. G. Nicola

Maison de l'Île-de-France
3rd decembre 2024
9.30 am - 5 pm

Anti-racism and Feminism as activism in EU and Comparative Law

Maison de l'Île-de-France, Cité internationale universitaire de Paris

3rd December 2024

9.30 am-12 pm

Opening : L.Clément-Wilz (University Paris Est Créteil) and F.Nicola (Washington College of Law, American University, visiting professor at Paris Est Créteil University)

Panel 1

Anti-racism and Feminism as activism in EU and Discrimination Law

Moderators: L.Clément-Wilz and F.Nicola

Jessica Guth (Leed Trinity University)

*Feminist and anti-racist perspectives on the Court of Justice of the European Union:
Research led teaching as activism*

Lionel Zevounou (University Paris Nanterre)

De-colonising EU Law

Helena Alviar (SciencesPo, Paris)

Women and aging: beyond discrimination

2 pm - 5 pm

Panel 2

Feminism as activism in Comparative Law

Moderators: Bianca Gardella Tedeschi (Università del Piemonte Orientale) and Jorge Esquirol (Florida International University Law School)

Camilla Crea (University of Sannio, School of Law)

Traveling Feminist Theories and Practices on Abortion: From Italy to Argentina and Vice Versa

Paola Bergallo (Universidad Torcuato di Tella, Buenos Aires)

Democracy and abortion law reform: a comparative view

Isabel Jaramillo (Universidad de los Andes, Bogotá)

Becoming Provincial: the Latin American Care Debate

Stéphanie Hennette-Vauchez (University Paris Nanterre)

The 2024 constitutionalization of abortion in France: A Feminist Constitutional Amendment